Press Communique.

Status of Danzig, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Latvia, Lithuania, and Estonia under the Enemy Trading Regulations.

The Enemy Trading Regulations no longer apply to Danzig, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia. Business and financial correspondence restricted to ascertaining facts and exchanging information only is now permissible in accordance with the Postal Regulations issued by the Director-General of Posts and Telegraphs from time to time.

Private trade with Czechoslovakia will be permitted shortly but facilities for such trade with the other countries mentioned do not yet exist.

Commerce Department,
New Delhi, December 8, 1945.

Press Communique.

ENEMY TRADING REGULATIONS.

Status of Far East Territories formerly under Japanese occupation.

The Enemy Trading Regulations no longer apply to the territories in the Far East which were formerly under Japanese occupation.

Mail communication has now been resumed with Malaya, Burma, French Indo-China, China (including Shanghai), Hongkong, Phillipines and Guam. Business correspondence can be carried on with these territories in accordance with the Postal notice issued by the Director-General, Posts and Telegraphs, from time to time.

As regards private trades, persons and concerns in India can now carry on such trade only with persons and concerns in the British Far Eastern territories and the Phillipine Islands, subject to the existing export, import and financial regulations.

Commerce Department,
New Delhi, December 11, 1945.

Press Communique.

Business correspondence with Siam.

In accordance with the action taken by His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom, Government of India have authorised persons and concerns in British India to have correspondence with persons and concerns in Siam, subject to the conditions that business and financial correspondence is confined to ascertaining facts and exchanging information only and that such correspondence is conducted in accordance with the postal notices issued from time to time by the Indian Posts and Telegraphs Department. Enquiries in this connection may be made at any post office.

Banks and other financial institutions may now reply to requests for information from their depositors in Siam, but remittances from British India to Siam, unless specially authorised, are not permissible. Documents such as births, deaths and marriage certificates and wills may be transmitted. Indian and Siamese firms may exchange business information with a view to the future resumption of business relationships, but the resumption of private trade is not yet allowed. The despatch of powers of attorney and proxies to Siam will be permissible, but prior approval of the Government of India should be obtained in each case.

Siamese-owned property in India will continue to be governed by the Defence of India Rules and will remain under the general control of the Custodian of Enemy Property, Bombay.

Applications and enquiries regarding British owned property in Siam should be addressed by persons in India to the Government of India in the Department of Commerce, Simla.

Commerce Department,
New Delhi, December 14, 1945.
